Le nageur roumain David Popovici a remporté ce mardi son deuxième titre mondial sur 200m nage libre à Singapour, un an après son titre olympique lors des Jeux de Paris. Grâce à une dernière longueur énorme, il a battu l'Américain Luke Hobson qui menait la course jusqu'aux 25 derniers mètres. Il récupère ainsi le titre qu'il avait perdu en 2023, après un premier sacre en 2022 à Budapest.

I am still excited to join your Infra/STIR team and contribute to expanding market connectivity, providing new products, and increasing liquidity.

Thanks to my APIs and e-connectivity skills in front-to-back Order Management Systems, I can contribute by liaising your Infra with external exchanges and liquidity providers, and act as the glue between your teams and applications for efficient and faster deliveries.

Looking forward to the next step in the recruitment process to join Swissquote, the Swiss leader in online banking.

I wish you a productive week.

Best Regards,

Joseph
